Dear Mary,

It is with regret that I write that I will resign my position at the end of the spring 2019 semester. Although I have enjoyed working with the students of 2020 and my wonderful co-workers, I think a different vocation may lend better to my talents. I hope in the end, that I am/was an overall positive force for the nursing program. I do want to thank you for the opportunity to do this, as it has been an incredible experience, and I have more respect than ever for educators! I also want to thank you for your help and guidance with the job.

Regards,
