Presentation:

SVCC has a historically strong collaborative relationship with Whiteside Area Career Center (WACC). SVCC and WACC are partnering to fund a new full-time professor of Business, Emily Zimmerman, who teaches the Creating Entrepreneurial Opportunities (CEO) program most mornings for WACC while teaching business classes online and in the afternoons for the College. This collaboration has allowed the CEO program to expand its service area while providing the College with a much needed business professor.

This presentation will highlight the collaborative partnership between SVCC and WACC and provide information about the CEO program.
